The divorce case of Emma J. Lewis vs. Jacob Lewis, was referred to George S.

All civil business was postponed until Saturday next.

Owen Ferguson, already convicted of murder in the first degree, was brought into court, and took his seat near the entrance within the railing, and almost directly in front of the presiding judge. Ferguson looked pale, and appeared con-siderably agitated. He said nothingnot even, we believe, speaking with his counsel. Judge Pitzer and Mr. Foster. Ferguson's attorneys, were present. The former addressed the Court, stating that new testimony had been discovered, and that it had not been possible to procure the affidavits of the two witnesses whose testimony the counsel desired to present to the Court. It was finally ordered that defendant's counsel be allowed until Tuesday next to present the affidavits referred to, and that the sentence of Feronson be deferred until Saturday next. Ferguson was then removed to his quarters in jail. Many withdrew at this stage of the proceedings, but the large number who remained showed that a deep interest was felt in the argument, then about to be resumed, in the case of the State vs. McKinney.

The argument in the McKinney cas began on Friday morning, Mr. Rives, of counsel for the State having the opening. He was followed by Col. Thornton for the defendant. District Attorney Goldthwaite continued the argument tor the State, after which an adjournment was had. Yesterday morning Mr. Bishop ad. dressed the jury in behalf of the defendant. Judge Pitzer closed the argumen for the State at 4 p. m. exactly. Col. Thornton, for the defense, read the instructions to the jury, which had already been passed upon by the Court. His Honor then gave the jury further instructions, and at 4:22 the case was given to them for consideration. Officers were sworn to take charge of the jury, the Court took a recess and the room was cleared. Within three minutes after the door was closed the jury informed an officer in attendance that they had agreed upon a verdict. His Honor, Judge Fuller and the counsel for the State and the defendant respectively were notified of the jury's action, and at once hastened to the Court-house. At 4:52 p. m. order was proclaimed, and the Clerk called the jury.

N. M. MILLER, Foreman. Nothing but the respect felt for the Court prevented an outbarst of applause from McKinney's friends.

While the verdict was being recorded we watched the countenances of Mo-Kinney and his counsel. Mr. Bishop, who sat on the right of his client, seemed more than confident that the verdict was in his favor; McKinney was unmoved save that a smile played upon his countenance: Col. Thornton, who sat on Mc Kinney's left and a little in front, looked more serious than either his associate or his client. After the verdict had been read, Col. Thornton arose and moved the Court to discharge the prisoner, which lated first by his connecl and then by his friends. Col. Thornton and Mr. Bishor were warmly congratulated by many present, and among the number by those whose bias was against the accused dur-ing the trial. Thus has ended the fourth murder trial during the present term of the District Court.

GOOD NEWS FROM WALLAPAL .- From letter just received by Mr. Wm. Hall, from Fred. White, dated Cedar District, Arizona Territory, we have been permitted to make public the following: Cedar District is from 44 to 50 miles south of Wallapai District, in the Wallapai mountains. The principal ledge is the Hibernia. This immense ledge crops out boldly, from six to twelve feet in width, and is not only traceable, but actually located, for between 14 and 15 One location has been sold to Wm. H. Raymond, of Raymond & Ely fame, for the sum of $30,000. Mr. Severs was appointed Superintendent, and, in making a cut across the ledge, he has developed a vein of mineral between eight and ten feet wide, that assays from $300 to $500 to the ton. This will all pay to ship to San Francisco. The district is located about 45 miles from the Colorado river, and a wagon road is already com-pleted to a point on the river near the Playet mine; also to Hardyville and the Needles. There is plenty of wood and water in the district.

LOCAL MINING REVIEW.

For the week Ending Sept. 20, 1873. What shall we say of the mines as they have been during the last week? That Thayer, was well attended. "A Cup of there has been nothing discouraging we Tea," a pretty little comedy, was much can certainly say. That the appearance of the mines are very encouraging, is no news; for so they have been during the rears past. He who sneers when the fuare of Pioche is mentioned should see for himself. He should ask the miners. He should listen to the puffing of the steam; be should watch the never ceasing work of the iron sinews that are oisting the silver ores from the bowels of the earth to the bright light of day. He should listen to the loud voices that come from the irou throats of the giants, who, on our hillsides, night and day, shout forth the song of prosperity. All these would answer with one question, 'Do we work for nothing?' CHIEF OF THE HILL The shaft has now reached the depth of 122 feet below the 210-foot level, a progress of twelve feet having been made in the past week. When the shaft is 30 feet deeper, or a total depth of 250 feet, it is the intention to cross-cut for the ledge, which, it is believed, will be reached inside of 100 feet. In sinking the last 50 feet, numerous little stringers or feeders of ore and ore-bearing quartz goes to show the near proximity of a valuable ledge. Drifting continues on the 210 foot level with first-rate pros-pects. Working two shifts throughout the mine. have been encountered, and everything

The work in the mine is going ou about as usual. There are now on the dump about 70 tons of ore. The ore in which the men are at present working is very good, much better than reported the previous week. Milling will be commenced again about the first of next month. Fair progress is being made in the new shaft, which yesterday attained a depth of 250 feet. The grading for the machinery on this shaft is nearly com-

SPRING MOUNTAIN TUNNEL. There is but little change to note since last week. Sinking continues as before a very actisfactory progress being made, considering the hardness of the ground. The shaft in No. 3 has now reached a perpendicular depth of 100 feet. It is expected to cut No. 2 ledge with the shaft at a further depth of 50 feet.

They believe that they will find ore bodies in No. 2 WASHINGTON AND CREOLE. Milling was commenced on Friday. The first bullion shipment will be made on Monday. There are now 200 tons of ore at the mill, and 20 tons being hauled daily. The usual quantity of ore is being taken out, and 40 men are at work. The work reported in our last review continues. BAYMOND & ELY. The full force (160 men) is at work. There is a large body of very good ore in the 8th level. The drift from the 9th level is expected to strike the ledge almost any hour. The rock there is extremely hard. It is daily expected also to strike the ledge in the east drift from the 8th lovel.

The drift on the 300-foot level is now in 350 feet. Everything looks favorable. The face of the drift is in quartzite. The vein in the winze from the second level is 4 feet feet wide. The ore in this vein анвауя from $75 to $80. CHAPMAN. Drifting is being continued with a deided improvement in the app the drift. The ledge is wider, more compact and uniform, and better defined. The ore is better at the bottom of the drift than at the top.

CHIEF EAST EXTENSION. In the east drift on the 225-foot level the best body of ore yet found in the mine has been struck. It is of a first rate quality, and a very large quantity is Everything about this mine continues to have a favorable appearance, as the work goes on. The owners have great and increasing expectations of success and, we think, with reason.

CAROLINE. The last contract for 100 feet was completed yesterday. The shaft is now 325 feet deep, and a new contract for 100 feet more has been let.

SILVER PEAK. The ore which is being taken out of this mine is good as usual. The incline is still being sunk. The usual force of men is employed.

AMERICAN PLAG. There is no change to note in this mine since our last report. The American Flag mill is now crushing ore from the Newark mine. LOUISE. A drift is being run east from the 200foot level. It is now in a distance of 150 feet. There is no change to note. PACIFIC TUNNEL. Mr. Church, one of the trustees of the company, will arrive here this evening, and work will be resumed on Monday. PEAVINE. The shaft is now down about 100 feet.

There are some $300 rock in sight. The workmen in the Bowery, Portland, Ivanhoe, Pioche and South Side continue to sink their respective shafts. Bristel District. From Bristol District we learn, indi-rectly, that a development of considerable importance has been made in the Cave mine.

AMAZONS ON THE WAR-PATH. -- Yesterday evening a couple of Amazons had a little difficulty on Lacour street. One of them, not satisfied with words, made an assault with her hands, evidently wishing to "set the ten commandmants in" the fac of her adversary. The latter, however objected in the most striking manner, and the former assailant fied in dismay to her domicile, howling her griefs out on THAYER'S LOST BENEVIX.-Last night the performance at Brown's Hall, the proceeds of which are to defray the neral expenses of the late Pierpont enjoyed, and the dramatic readings were loudly applauded. The well knopn comedy, "All that Glitters is not Gold," was rendered very well indeed. We think we may safely say that Sallie Hinckley acted her part, "Martha Gibbs," in a present. Maguire, in the character of old "Jusper Plum," deserved and received the hearty approbation of the audience. G. F. Bird was also very good in the role of the blundering servant. The part of the antiquated flirt, "Lady Leatherbridge," was really well taken by Bella Bird. Dudley, who played "Stephen Plum," also deserves mention. In fact, the play was a success, none of the minor characters being "murdered," as they usually are. Many of the audi ence responded to the hearty laugh of 'Stephen' with roars of laughter, nor were they less pleased with the comicalities of Bird. In short, they went home well pleased. On Monday we are to have the drama "Dora," with Sallie Hinckley in the role, and a repetition of "All that Glitters is not Gold." PIOCHE PRESENTERIAN CHURCH.-Ser-
